

Reproducible Congregational Page

Commissioned by First Saint Paul's Lutheran Church, Chicago, Illinois, for the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation and in memory of Sara Dornacker (1947–2015)

Jesus, Author of Salvation

Choir: 1. Je - sus, Au - thor of Sal - va - tion, 2. Hum - bly, then, I trust God's prom - ise,
3. At your Ta - ble I am nour - ished, All: 4. Oh, what heav'n - ly joy a - waits me, love to all the world made known, by your through no mer - it of my own, raised to at the font was made your own. Through your joined with saints a - round your throne! Till that death and res - ur - rec - tion Death was con - quered, life the day the an - gel came to roll a - Church I grow and flour - ish as the liv - ing - day, I glad - ly la - bor that your love in sin a - toned. At your cross I stand for - giv - en, way the stone. At your emp - ty tomb I mar - vel, seed is sown. In your House I pray and wor - ship, me be shown. In your world I find my call - ing, jus - ti - fied by grace a - lone. heir to heav'n through faith a - lone. ground - ed in God's Word a - lone. liv - ing here to Christ a - lone.

Text: David Rogner, newly authored, and copyright © 2018 Birnamwood with this publication.

Tune: DORNACKER, Robert A. Hobby, newly composed, and copyright © 2018 Birnamwood with this publication.

Setting: Robert A. Hobby, newly composed, and copyright © 2018 Birnamwood with this publication.

Purchaser may reproduce this congregational page provided a valid license is in place from a licensing agency, usage is reported, and the copyright notice is included.
Alternatively, permission can be obtained from the copyright owner.